Tickets for the event are $15 and will benefit Starfish, a metro-Detroit non-profit organization that focuses on strengthening families to create brighter futures for children.

The film, produced by Radish Creative Group, Inc., will screen at 8 p.m., at Detroit Music Hall Center for Performing Arts, 350 Madison, Detroit. Admission includes an afterglow and a chance to meet the cast and director.

Annabelle & Bear tells the story of a man who finds himself suddenly thrust into fatherhood, and the unexpected journey that leads him to discover the life-altering love found in the heart of his little girl.

The film was shot in Michigan, with home-grown cast and crew. Director Amy Weber announced at the start of the project that she would offer Michigan residents an opportunity to be a part of the film making experience. More than 4,000 individuals responded to the casting and crewing opportunities. She also offered Michigan musicians an opportunity to have their music or original song featured in the movie. The band, Nervous But Excited, made a cameo in the film with its song, Said and Done. Weber also selected nearly 20 instrumental pieces and songs from musicians who participated in a music competition to score her film.

"I truly believe this is an amazing time to create something, versus just being a player in a Hollywood game. This is our moment to create opportunities for ourselves, to generate something we've always dreamed of, to make films on our terms and of our own vision. This is why we made this film", state Weber, in a press release.

Olivia Walby and Curt Massof star as Annabelle and Bear in the Michigan made film "Annabelle Bear."
